The Income Certification Process

Once you have submitted your complete application with all requested documentation and we have received your employer verification documents, etc., it typically takes up to 14 business days to inform you of the determination on your income certification status.

A delay in receiving documentation will increase the time needed to complete the review.

If for any reason it takes you more than 120 days from the time you first submit your documentation to complete all file document requirements, you will be required to resubmit updated information that is dated within a new 120-day review cycle.

You will receive an official response indicating the status of your application for Income Certification from our office via the email you provided on your application and at your current address as listed on the application.

If approved, you will be required to visit our office in person to sit with the reviewer and sign the certification documents. All other adults in the household will be required to sign the same document, but may do so in front of a notary public if necessary.

The letter of income certification will be active for 12 months from the date of the letter.

If you are determined not qualified for an income-based program, you can submit a new application and new documentation if your circumstances change in the future.

All applications will be processed according to Monroe County Code Section 139-1(a), 6, j
